

BITTER SUGAR

Written and Directed by

M O H A M M A D A R A B

Producer: Ardeshir Iran-Nezhad

Production Company: Soureh Cinema Organization

Director's Profile:

Mohammad Arab

Born in 1964, Mohammad Arab began his filmmaking career in Iranian Young Cinema Society – Gorgan Branch.
As a director of 20 shorts (most notably, LITTLE HUNTER and THALASSEMIA) and 2 feature films, he won a number of national and international awards. Arab has been also teaching film in Iranian Young Cinema Society, Hozeh Honari – Golestan Branch, etc.

Feature Films:
(1999) THE DARK SYMPHONY
(2003) AN IGNORABLE "A"
(2008) BITTER SUGAR.

Suffering from diabetes, a star of provincial Karate team, Parsa, should use insulin regularly. Going to a sport camp despite his father's disagreement, he forgets to take the insulin flask.
Finding out about it, his mother sets out on a journey for saving the son; a bitter journey into less familiar domains of nature and society…

BITTER SUGAR

(GHAND-E TALKH)

Cast

Yekta Nasser Reza Tavakkoli Ramtin Khoda-Panahi
Mohsen Ashrafi and child Actor: Taha Arab

Written and Directed by: Mohammad Arab
Producer: Ardeshir Iran-Nezhad Production Company: Soureh Cinema Organization
Director of Photography: Hassan Pouya Editor: Mohammad Hossein Dar-ol-Shafahi
Costume and Production Designer: Mohammad Arab
Music: Bamdad Bayat Sound-recordist: Hossein Bashash
Sound Mix: Arash Ghasemi Make-up: Mohammad Reza Tavassoli
Country and Year of Production: Iran, 2008

Hozeh Honari - Soureh Pictures Company
www.SourehPictures.com

35 mm | COLOR | 90min